

Analyst, Software Solutions

(The position is located in Montreal, Canada)

Position Summary:

The analyst, software solutions, relies on user requirements to design software and perform functional analysis for new systems or modifications to existing systems.

Position Duties:

- Identify options for the development of solutions.
- As part of systems development team, create the internal architecture and write the system specifications.
- Establish and evaluate the implementation strategy of the software solution.
- Assist programmer analysts in software development.
- Assist the QA team in designing test strategies.
- Support project managers in their planning tasks.
- Perform other related tasks assigned by his / her immediate supervisor.

Education and Experience:

- Degree in Computer Science or Computer or Software Engineering.
- At least five years of experience in software development
- At least one year of application design experience
- Knowledge of unified modeling language (UML)
- Experience with multitasking systems and distributed systems
- Experience working in a client-server environment
- At least one year of experience using the C ++ programming language
- Analytical with good problem-solving skills
- Creative
- Ability to handle ambiguity
- Excellent oral and written communication and presentation skills
- Strong collaborative skills with the ability to work effectively alone or in a team, as required
- Willingness to provide the necessary time to support projects
- Ability and flexibility to work in a variety of situations and schedules
- Willingness to keep up to date in his/her area of expertise
- Understanding system performance principles
- Bilingualism, French and English, spoken and written

Assets

- Financial sector knowledge
- Canadian Securities Course